

CITY NEWS

Taxi Steam heated. David Allen, Bell Phones East 2600 and East 4154.

Mr. A. B. Sayles of Brookville, Okla., a colored town, is visiting his brother, R. B. Sayles, of 2304 Woodland Avenue. He will remain in the city several days.

In spite of the very disagreeable weather all the Negro schools reopened this week with very satisfactory attendance.

Mr. John Gregory, 1408 Woodland Avenue, returned Christmas day after a four months' visit with relatives and friends at Nashville, Tenn., where he had not been for sixteen years. His reports having had a fine time. His many friends welcome him back among them.

MEMORIAM.
In memory of Nathan W. Jordan, who passed away December 30, 1917.
Sadly missed by wife,
MRS. N. W. JORDAN.

Sergt. Leon H. Herriford, 25th Infantry, U. S. A., regulars, after a furlough of fifteen days, left this week to rejoin his regiment stationed at Nogales, Ariz.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of my dear brother, Geo. H. Whittell, who died one year ago January 1, 1918, in Denver, Colo.

Dearest brother, thou hast left us
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled.

Miss Caddie Jett

Desires to express to her many friends and patrons her sincere appreciation of their patronage during the past year and to wish for each one of them a Happy and Prosperous NEW YEAR.

Then in heaven with joy we greet thee
Where no farewell tear is shed.
Cora L. Hopkins, sister.

OBITUARY.
Mr. Samuel Ross was born in Leavenworth, Kansas, February 18, 1890. He became ill Monday, December 23, and died Friday, December 27. He was a Christian and a member of St. Paul Chapel in Argentine. He was a member of Silver City Lodge, A. F. & A. M., No. 48, which conducted the funeral; was associated with Long Chapter No. 30, a member of A. E. A. Order of Nobles No. 6 of the Mystic Shrine and a member of the Emanuel Commandery No. 25. The services were held at St. Paul Chapel Monday, December 30, and officiated by Rev. D. A. Holmes, who very fittingly told of his life as an energetic and exemplary young man. His death was a shock to the community and is mourned by a devoted wife, father, mother, seven sisters, four brothers and innumerable friends.

Love's Vine Street Theatre is the talk of the town.

AN APPRECIATION.
Madame A. Moore, Instructor of Piano, received her pupils at her beautiful apartment, "The Baskett," on Sunday afternoon, December 29. Quite a number of valuable as well as useful presents were presented her. Despite the street car strike, each pupil endeavored to reach the point and many were compelled to use motor cars. The present class roll for 1918-19 is as follows:
Mesdames Charles Gaines, Lulu Britt, Sallie Hill, Hattie Taylor, Josephine Hopkins; Misses Mabel Russell, Hazel Russell, Kittle Savage, Melvreen Frazier, Osce Jackson; Messrs. William Gregg, Thomas Russell, J. C. T. Thompson. Guests present also were: Miss Gregg of Kansas City, Kan., and Miss Elders of 1611 Troost Avenue.

IVANHOE'S CHRISTMAS PARTY.

The annual Christmas party of the Ivanhoe Club was only a repetition of those brilliant affairs which the club puts on each year. Because of the larger number of out of town guests and the extra entertainment features added this year most of the three hundred persons in attendance count the event as the most complete social affair of their lives. Labor Temple Hall was elaborately decorated and every appointment for comfort and convenience was carefully observed. There were visiting guests from ten states and a rigidly selected list of guests from Greater Kansas City and neighboring points, all in handsome formal attire.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. James and Dr. L. S. Peck, Ivanhoe newly-weds, were formally presented by the club with handsome bouquets of roses.

Dancing was the principal order of the evening and special musical numbers were rendered by Miss Anna Smith, contralto; Mr. Clyde Glass, pianist; Miss Beatrice Lee, soprano;

Sergt. Leon H. Herriford, violinist, and Mrs. R. G. Jackson, soprano.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of our darling mother, Mattie King Whitten, who died one year ago today, January 2, 1918.

Her face is not forgotten,
Her sweet voice is ringing still,
She is happy with the angels,
But left place no one can fill.
Her form and face are missing.

Memory just as fresh today,
For our hearts have not ceased aching
Since our darling passed away.
In our grief we still can see her
Loving eyes shining bright,
We should not be broken hearted
What God does we know is right.

Sadly missed by her children,
Ophelia Lovingood,
Hattie Bobo,
Willie Loston,
Mary Hall,
Amanda Thomas,
Katie Newman,
Sedalia King,
Charlie King.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness and expressions of sympathy and the beautiful floral offerings during the illness and death of our beloved husband, son and brother.

Carrie Ross, wife,
Mr. and Mrs. John Ross,
parents and family.

A DISAPPOINTMENT.

In a country week appeal Senator Harding said in Cleveland:

"It is most pathetic to see the ignorance of country life that is manifested by the little country weekers from the slums.

"A little country weeker on an Ohio farm went down into the barnyard to see the milking, and returned with tears in his eyes.

"Why, what's the matter, bub?" said the farmer's wife. "Didn't the milking please you?"
"Naw," said the country weeker. "Them cows o' yours don't give nothin' but milk."
"For the land's sake! And what do you expect 'em to give?" said the farmer's wife.
"Beef tea, o' course," snapped the country weeker."

Miss Millie Carstensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carstensen, of Belleville, left recently for Chicago to join a Y. M. C. A. musical troupe and proceed to France, where they will give entertainments for soldiers of the army of occupation.
